Panel of Experts Meeting Consensus & Recommendations

- SCAG range of population, employment, and household projections are reasonable
- Recent statistics and state of the economy support SCAG region growth forecast along the lower bound of the range
- Major growth forecast variables from bottom-up process are consistent with the forecast ranges in 2020, however, minor imbalance between population and jobs in 2035
- The Panel recommends work with subregions and local jurisdictions to adjust the minor “imbalance” between population and employment in 2035 by a reduction of about 200,000 jobs in 2035
